

2025 Prisoner Responses

1. The biggest thing us inmates need is your continued prayer. The conditions and struggles we face behind closed doors is unspeakable and it feels so hopeless at times. Your books are an escape for our mind and help to strengthen our faith. I will never forget you all.
2. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart for all the contributions you've all made to help me change the trajectory of my life! And it is not just me but I'm sure hundreds of other inmates if not thousands. The books you all send truly are gifts from God and help tremendously.
3. I really do appreciate this ministry, and I hope your ministry understands the difference that you make for many believers behind bars and the eternal impact that you have on us. Thank you!
4. Thank you for the last 3 books I received including that beautiful St Joseph Bible. I am learning about Joseph, Jacob's son and also How to be a promise keeper. Thank you so much!! That Joseph Book by Charles R. Swindoll is great.
5. It has been wonderful to have good Christian books to keep my eyes and mind on the Only "One" that matters as I pass my time in here. I truly count this generosity as a blessing.
6. The ministry you provide is utterly phenomenal. I am currently completing Seminary by correspondence and feel the Lord leading me to open a church and addiction/recovery house upon release. So many of the materials you provide help bring me closer to that goal.
7. Thank you for your service to those of us behind bars. It makes us feel as though there are some who do not believe out of sight out of mind. I've been locked up for 35 years and people as yourself truly help us in more ways than you know. A bit of kindness goes a very great distance.
8. I want to get everything about Jesus that I can. Please send me all the books about Jesus that you have.
9. Your books have helped so much as I near the completion of my associates degree and will begin my bachelors in Christian Counseling. May the Lord always light your path.
10. I writing in regards to your free Bible. God Bless you for all that you do helping prisoners to spread the word and to hear Gods word. I know that Gods word has changed my life and filled me with much joy.
11. I just received the November book listing and it is such a wonderful gift and service yall provide. A few of us receive books from you and get so excited when they come in and even more excited when we get to pass them along and share with others what you have so generously provided. I am our unit pastor/preacher and I also lead the prison's Christian Sexual Addiction Therapy group. The books you have provided have been instrumental in both. Thank you very much.
12. With the help of your services I have turned my life over to Christ. Thank you for saving my life.
13. I just started Seminary School and these free books are a huge help for me! Thank you! I pray that these seeds you are planting to individuals in prison flourish and bare fruit for the Kingdom of God in Jesus name.
14. I received my last shipment of books and they were amazing. I've already passed several off to others in my unit after reading them. The story of Christianity Volume 1 has been a big hit, learning about the formation of the church and the early church Fathers. Your ministry is truly a blessing to those incarcerated.
15. I tremendously thank our Lord for His grace through your ministry. I apply what I learn from the books to my walk as well as my family lives. Thank you so much for the many lives your ministry has touched and impacted.
16. You are truly the "hands and feet" of Jesus.
17. The birthday card you sent in May is the first I've gotten in many years, and it meant a lot. You are so kind, and your loving service to the Kingdom of God is amazing.

18. May God's mighty blessings flow to all of you involved in this wonderful ministry of yours by His river that is full of water! Psa 65:9 The importance of what you offer is truly an offering well pleasing to the Lord. With the wealth of knowledge available to us with the click of a mouse, it almost seems like the writing of books is no longer necessary. Unfortunately for those of us in prison who don't have access to the internet or religious programming, the value of a spiritual book is priceless. Our Lord Jesus so appreciates what you are providing to all of us. This facility is supplied strictly by donations and only provide the basics of our spiritual needs, only because they have to. Please let your donors know that even though they may not visit prisons physically, that their donations do so by the printed page, and for that we are forever grateful!
19. Thank You!! The books that was sent last month were a blessing! The last few weeks my depression has been in overdrive and the books have helped. There is a large group of men that gather outside on Saturday Mornings for praise + worship service and we are starting a library for religious books and we are excited to start this program. I have volunteered to take charge of it, and create a list for All to have and share the books around 5 units, roughly 1800-2000 people will be able to see these books and will pray that more people come to know God and dedicate their lives!
20. Thank you for all that you do for us who are serving time in prison and for helping us to draw closer to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
21. I study the book all day and I've grown spiritually. I continue to pray for your ministry to grow and touch many hearts as it did mine.
22. Thank you for being a blessing of sending Christian books to edify & keep up my spirit during my incarceration.
23. Your ministry helps so many people with their walk with Christ. Thank you all!
24. First of all I would like to thank you for the books you recently sent me. I and my fellow inmates really enjoyed them very much. I still see them being read around the housing unit.
25. God has certainly blessed me through your work! It has provided a means for me to redeem time that could otherwise be wasted.
26. Thank you as always for the blessing of any and all materials you bless me with! Ultimately, many of these are donated into the chapel library after I finish them so much of them bless more people.
27. This ministry has been a great blessing. I pray that God will bless each & everyone of you & carry out His wonderful work through you all.
28. I myself am going to do Gods work and teach Bible once Im released within the next year. I have been locked up 8 ½ years now, its been a very lonely Journey but one of faith and patience as well.
29. These books that you send have helped me mature in my walk and I donate them to our Christian library for others to read, so again thank you and God bless you.
30. Today I received some GREAT books from you all. I LOVE them. Thank you So much!
31. Thank you so much for the books! I started devouring the A. W. Tozer and Billy Graham as soon as I got them. I couldn't decide which to start because I love them both so I've been jumping back and forth. We all appreciate your book ministry so much.
32. The books and services you provide are invaluable to those of us who are incarcerated. Thank you for shining the light of Christ into the darkness.
33. Thank you all for the books. I really love reading them and learning about God.
34. I cannot begin to express what your gifts have meant to me and furthered my spiritual growth and calmed my soul. I treasure each book and have never been disappointed in my selections.
35. I thank you for the wonderful gifts of Books you offer to inmates. Christian Books are essential to the Christian faith But Really needed in evil environments.
36. I thank you for sending me your books catalog. I don't know how you all do it and all those books, where do you get them all?

37. The variety of texts in your catalog is commendable and never fails to inspire one to find new endeavors to connect with the heart and teachings of Christ and his followers in their many paths of wisdom and devotion.
38. God has blessed us all with our friends at the Free Prison Ministries. I am so grateful to you all for giving us inmates a hand up. Please know that these books make a great Godly impression in my life.
39. Thank you Free Prison Ministry for being so generous with all the books you provide for us. On behalf of myself and my fellow inmates we appreciate all your help and generosity towards us.
40. Thank you so much for your organization. You open so many doors for those of us that have so little.
41. The Birthday card you sent meant the world to me. It's the first I've received from anyone in several years. Happy tears for being remembered by someone. I know I'll be reunited with departed family someday, and I'm looking forward to sharing a smile and a hug with each of you on the other side of eternity.
42. Please make sure you never give up. Your Ministry is a blessing for others.
43. We would like to thank everyone there at Free Prison Ministry for all the free wonderful Christian books and encouraging books you have sent me and everyone here. We need books to read especially while we are on lock down like we are right now. I am getting the word of Jesus in my life more and more every day.
44. God bless you for the work you do empowering and encouraging us. Thank you for spreading the light of Gods word to darker corners of the world. It is very appreciated.
